INDIAN FOOD ON A PLATTER

A significant part of the nation, Indian food is a combination of many different cultures and civilisations, each with unique taste, cuisines,
cooking methods, and eating habits.
Indians truly have a passion for food,
showcasing love and tradition for an experience you just can't resist!

Yummy!

STREET FOOD

Street food is the true essence of India and one can find food carts around every street corner across the nation.

From steaming Samosas & Pakoras to tangy Pani Puri & Chaat, from the rich flavours of Kebabs & Pav Bhaji to light eats like Idli, Dosa, Dhokla & Momos, there's something to suit everyone's plate.

MAIN COURSE

If you're looking to fill up your tummy with all things yummy, then India presents some delectable options for you.

With an array of curries - all with distinct preparations & flavours, one can also find a gravy to appeal to all taste buds.

Biryani is the perfect dish for spice-lovers while those who desire lighter flavours can opt for Palak Paneer, Dal Makhani or Butter Chicken paired with Indian flatbread 'Naan'.

DESSERTS

Like Indian savoury dishes, Indian sweet treats are also rich in flavour due to the use of nuts and other ingredients.

Magnificent to behold, Indian desserts can be savoured at any time - be it breakfast, post-lunch or dinner.

You cannot miss out on Indian donuts called Gulab Jamun, spongy Rasgullas and spiral Jalebis dipped in sugar syrup or our very own Indian ice-cream - Kulfi.
